

2nd California Adaptation Forum

September 7-8, 2016 • Long Beach, California

Join us in the Fall of 2016 for the 2nd California Adaptation Forum, bringing together a diverse audience of leaders, stakeholders, practitioners, and other key players committed to addressing California's adaptation needs.

THE PREMIERE CONVENING of hundreds of decision-makers, leaders, and advocates to discuss, debate and consider how we can most effectively respond to the impacts of climate change. This event is designed to encourage an honest and open dialogue among participants on aspects of climate adaptation such as climate justice, climate science, and the evolving landscape of climate policy and implementation. The program will include a variety of advanced, intermediate, and beginner topics with an exciting mix of interactive, traditional, and implementation focused sessions; designed to engage participants from a wide range of sectors and disciplines.

THE 2016 CALIFORNIA ADAPTATION FORUM WILL FEATURE

- A series of plenaries with high-level adaptation leaders
- A variety of sessions highlighting resources, best practices, lessons learned, new legislation, State policy priorities and other essential adaptation topics
- Pre-forum regional project tours highlighting local adaptation and resilience efforts
- Pre-forum workshops on tools and strategies for implementing adaptation solutions

FORUM PARTICIPANTS WILL INCLUDE

Transportation, health, energy, agricultural, financial, and natural resource professionals; planners, developers, entrepreneurs, and urban designers; Local, regional, state, and federal representatives, equity and climate justice groups, community members and nonprofits; along with water agencies, flood control agencies, air districts and more.
